

Preston Public Library Patron Code of Conduct

I. Statement of Policy:

The Preston Public Library is committed to ensuring that its patrons' Library experience is positive and free from safety concerns. To achieve that end, the Library requires the patrons to be engaged in activities associated with the use of the facility and its services. Disruptive behaviors can have an adverse effect and will not be tolerated. Library patrons who violate this policy may be subject to suspension of their Library privileges, be barred from the Library and/or face legal action.

II. Regulation:

In situations where the Library feels the health, safety or security of its users or employees is threatened, staff may take any and all appropriate measures including, but not limited to, calling the police for assistance to resolve the situation. The Library Board of Trustees and the Library Director may ask a patron to leave the premises with or without warning, depending upon the severity of the offense. The Director may also exclude a user from the Preston Public Library. If the seriousness of the offense requires a suspension, the user will be officially notified. Any patron whose Library privileges are suspended under these rules has a right to appeal such action.
